

bill may include information that identifies you, as well as your diagnosis, procedures, and supplies used.

We will use your health information for regular health operations.

For example: Members of the medical staff, the risk or quality improvement manager, or members of the quality improvement team may use information in your health record to assess the care and outcomes in your case and others like it. This information will then be used in an effort to continually improve the quality and effectiveness of the healthcare and service we provide.

Business associates: There are some services provided in our organization through contacts with business associates. Examples include physician services in the emergency department and radiology, certain laboratory tests, and a copy service we use when making copies of your health record. When these services are contracted, we may disclose your health information to our business associate so that they can perform the job we've asked them to do and bill you or your third-party payer for services rendered. To protect your health information, however, we require the business associate to appropriately safeguard your information.

Directory: Unless you notify us that you object, we will use your name, location in the facility, general condition, and religious affiliation for directory purposes. This information may be provided to members of the clergy and, except for religious affiliation, to other people who ask for you by name.

Notification: We may use or disclose information to notify or assist in notifying a family member, personal representative, or another person responsible for your care, your location, and general condition.

Communication with family: Health professionals, using their best judgment, may disclose to a family member, other relative, close personal friend or any other person you identify, health information relevant to that person's involvement in your care or payment related to your care.

Research: We may disclose information to researchers when their research has been approved by an institutional review board that has reviewed the research proposal and established protocols to ensure the privacy of your health information.

Funeral directors: We may disclose health information to funeral directors consistent with applicable law to carry out their duties.

Organ procurement organizations: Consistent with applicable law, we may disclose health information to organ procurement organizations or other entities engaged in the procurement, banking, or transplantation of organs for the purpose of tissue donation and transplant.

Marketing: We may contact you to provide appointment reminders or information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.

Food and Drug Administration (FDA): We may disclose to the FDA health information relative to adverse events with respect to food, supplements, product and product defects, or post marketing surveillance information to enable product recalls, repairs, or replacement.

Workers compensation: We may disclose health information to the extent authorized by and to the extent necessary to comply with laws relating to workers compensation or other similar programs established by law.

Public health: As required by law, we may disclose your health information to public health or legal authorities charged with preventing or controlling disease, injury, or disability.

Law enforcement: We may disclose health information for law enforcement purposes as required by law or in response to a valid subpoena.

Federal law makes provision for your health information to be released to an appropriate health oversight agency, public health authority or attorney, provided that a work force member or business associate believes in good faith that we have engaged in unlawful conduct or have otherwise violated professional or clinical standards and are potentially endangering one or more patients, workers or the public.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY POLICIES FOR MEDICAL CLINIC OF NORTHVILLE

Ross Summer, M.D.
Cheryl Johnstone, M.D.
Amy Berke, M.D.
Mirella Ducu, M.D.

Revised 1/22/2020

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Introduction

At Medical Clinic of Northville, we are committed to treating and using protected health information about you responsibly. This Notice of Health Information Practices describes the personal information we collect, and how and when we use or disclose that information. It also describes your rights as they relate to your protected health information. This Notice is effective September 23, 2013, and applies to all protected health information as defined by federal regulations.

Understanding Your Health Record/Information

Each time you visit Medical Clinic of Northville, a record of your visit is made. Typically, this record contains your symptoms, examination and test results, diagnoses, treatment, and a plan for future care or treatment. This information, often referred to as your health or medical record, serves as a:

- Basis for planning your care and treatment,
- Means of communication among the many health professionals who contribute to your care,
- Legal document describing the care you received,
- Means by which you or a third-party payer can verify that services billed were actually provided,
- A tool in educating health professionals,
- A source of data for medical research,
- A source of information for public health officials charged with improving the health of this state and the nation,
- A source of data for our planning and marketing,
- A tool with which we can assess and continually work to improve the care we render and the outcomes we achieve,

Understanding what is in your record and how your health information is used helps you to: ensure its accuracy, better understand who, what, when, where, and why others may access your health information, and make more informed decisions when authorizing disclosure to others.

Your Health Information Rights

Although your health record is the physical property of Medical Clinic of Northville, the information belongs to you. You have the right to:

- Obtain a paper copy of this notice of information practices upon request,
- Inspect and copy your health record as provided for in 45 CFR 164.524,
- Amend your health record as provided in 45 CFR 164.528,
- Obtain an accounting of disclosures of your health information as provided in 45 CFR 164.528,
- Request communications of your health information by alternative means or at alternative locations,
- Request a restriction on certain uses and disclosures of your information as provided by 45 CFR 164.522, and
- Revoke your authorization to use or disclose health information except to the extent that action has already been taken. This includes the right restrict certain disclosures of Protected Health Information to a health plan where you have paid out of pocket in full for the healthcare item or service.

Our Responsibilities

Medical Clinic of Northville is required to:

- Maintain the privacy of your health information,
- Provide you with this notice as to our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to information we collect and maintain about you,
- Abide by the terms of this notice,
- Notify you if we are unable to agree to a requested restriction, and
- Accommodate reasonable requests you may have to communicate health information by alternative means or at alternative locations.
- Notify you of any breach of your unsecured Protected health Information.

We reserve the right to change our practices and to make the new provisions effective for all protected health information we maintain. Should our information practices change, we will mail a revised notice to the address you've supplied us, or if you agree, we will email the revised notice to you.

We will not use or disclose your health information without your authorization, except as described in this notice. Authorizations will be required for:

- Use and disclosures of psychotherapy notes,

- Use and disclosure of Protected Health Information for marketing purposes,
- Disclosures that constitute the sale of Protected Health Information,
- Any other use and disclosure not described in this Notice of Privacy Practices,

We will also discontinue to use or disclose your health information after we have received a written revocation of the authorization according to the procedures included in the authorization.

For More Information or to Report a Problem

If have questions and would like additional information, you may contact the practice's Privacy Officer, at (248) 349-1900.

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you can file a complaint with the practice's Privacy Officer, or with the Office for Civil Rights, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. There will be no retaliation for filing a complaint with either the Privacy Officer or the Office for Civil Rights. The address for the OCR is listed below:

Examples of Disclosures for Treatment, Payment and Health Operations

We will use your health information for treatment.

For example: Information obtained by a nurse, physician, or other member of your health care team will be recorded in your record and used to determine the course of treatment that should work best for you. Your physician will document in your record his or her expectations of the members of your health care team. Members of your health care team will then record the actions they took and their observations. In that way, the physician will know how you are responding to treatment.

We will also provide your physician or a subsequent health care provider with copies of various reports that should assist him or her in treating you once you're discharged from this hospital.

We will use your health information for payment.

For example: A bill may be sent to you or a third-party payer. The information on or accompanying the

GENERAL CONSENT TO TREATMENT

PATIENT NAME: _____

1. REQUEST AND CONSENT TO AMBULATORY SERVICES.

By signing this form, I am requesting and consenting to the ambulatory and office services as the physician or his designees ("physician") believe necessary for the patient. These services include, without limitation, routine diagnostic, radiology and laboratory procedures, routine therapeutic procedures, routine drugs, and routine medical, nursing and ambulatory care. I know that in emergencies the physician may believe it necessary to expand or deviate from these services. I request and consent to these expanded and/or different services and procedures as the physician may think best for the health of the patient. I also consent to the Medical Clinic of Northville personnel doing the things they would normally do in caring for a patient, and as instructed by the physician. I understand that the Medical Clinic of Northville may perform non- diagnostic tests on the patient's blood, urine and other bodily fluids/tissues that were drawn for diagnostic purposes, and the Medical Clinic of Northville may dispose of these specimens as it chooses. I understand that General Consent to Treatment (entire form) will remain in effect until such time as I cancel (revoke) it in writing.

2. NO GUARANTEES.

I understand that medicine is not an exact science and that diagnosis and treatment involve risks. No one can or has given me a guarantee or promise of what the results of the patient's diagnosis, treatment and care will be.

3. HUMAN IMMUNODEFICIENCY VIRIS (HIV) TESTING.

I understand that the Medical Clinic of Northville may perform an HIV test upon the patient without any special written consent if a health professional or employee of the Medical Clinic of Northville has a percutaneous, mucous membrane, or open wound exposure to the patient's blood or other body fluid.

4. RELEASE OF INFORMATION.

I authorize the Medical Clinic of Northville to release information from the patient's medical record, including:

- a) Information about communicable diseases and serious communicable diseases and infections as defined by statute and Michigan Department of Public Health Rules, (which include venereal disease "VD", tuberculosis "TB", human Immunodeficiency virus "HIV", acquired immunodeficiency syndrome "AIDS", and AIDS related complex "ARC".
- b) substance abuse treatment information protected by 42 Code of Federal Regulations Part 2.
- c) psychological and social services information including communications made by me to a psychologist or social worker to:
 - 1) any, third party payer or insurance company (including Medicare, Medicaid, maternal and infant health, Blue Cross/Blue Shield, commercial health insurers, automobile no-fault insurers, worker's disability compensation insurers, health maintenance organizations, preferred provider organizations, and managed care plans) which are responsible in whole or in part for paying my Medical Center bill so that the Medical Center may be paid for its services; and/or
 - 2) any health care facility or physician to which I am referred or transferred for continuity of care; and/or
 - 3) any independent auditors or reviewers retained by any third party payer, private health insurer or any employer providing health insurance benefits to me so that these independent auditors can analyze Medical Clinic charges; and/or
 - 4) any party retained by Medical Clinic of Northville to provide accounting, billing or collection services to Medical Clinic of Northville and parties to whom I may be referred to assist me in obtaining third party reimbursement for treatment, services and procedures rendered to me.

This release authorization shall be effective only so long as it is necessary to accomplish the purpose for which it is given. In regards to substance abuse information (if any), this consent may be revoked at any earlier time unless the Medical Clinic of Northville has already released information in reliance upon it.

5. PAYMENT PROVISIONS

NOTE: The term "health care benefits" in the following paragraphs means Medicare, Medicaid, maternal and infant health, Blue Cross/Blue Shield, commercial health insurance benefits, automobile no-fault benefits, workers' disability compensation benefits, health maintenance organization, preferred provider organization, or managed care plan coverage, as applicable.

- a) I understand that, except in limited circumstances, separate billings will be issued for services of the Health Center and services of physicians, and that neither charges are included in the billings of the other.
- b) I request payment on the patient's behalf of all health care benefits for services provided by the Health Center and by physicians for whom the Health Center is authorized to bill.
- c) I assign and transfer to the Health Center all health care benefits applicable to the patient's care, including those health care benefits listed on the first page of my medical record. I authorize and direct that all such health care benefits be paid directly to the Health Center.
- d) I agree personally to pay for any Health Center or physician charges not covered by or collected from any applicable health care benefit program, including any deductibles and coinsurance amounts.

I have read and understand this form, and consent to it. If the signer is not the patient, the signer certifies that he/she is the patient's legally authorized representative.
